A COMPREHENSIVE APPROACH TO PEER EDUCATOR TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT

May 25, 2012 :: 1:00 – 2:30 p.m. EDT

OVERVIEW

Too often, training for peer educators does not fully meet the mentors' developmental and ongoing training needs. Join us for a look at the structure, objectives, and logistics of a comprehensive approach to peer educator training and development. Our expert facilitator will highlight ways you can utilize year-round training to address peer educator development, ensuring your peer mentors feel challenged and supported.

You will leave this webcast with specific strategies and tactics to better prepare your peer educator team and the students they serve.

LEARNING OUTCOME

After participating in this webcast, you will be able to train peer educators in a more effective and comprehensive way.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

This webcast is ideal for anyone responsible for peer educator programs such as first-year experience, residence life, orientation, academic support, career services, academic advising, and student success programs.

AGENDA

- Purpose and value of peer educator development
 - Looking at the research
 - Understanding a comprehensive approach to training peer educators
- Aligning institutional values with your peer leadership training

you can train
peer educators
in a more effective and comprehensive way.

A COMPREHENSIVE APPROACH TO PEER EDUCATOR TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT

May 25, 2012 :: 1:00 – 2:30 p.m. EDT

INSTRUCTOR

Jennifer A. Latino, Ed.D., Director, First-Year Experience, Campbell University

During her career in higher education, Jennifer has served in support roles for transitioning students at a private women's college, a community college, large research universities, and a faith-based private institution. Through positions in the first-year seminar, first-year experience, new student orientation, student leadership development, and residence life, Jennifer has developed a thorough understanding of the needs and challenges that face students in transition. Her research interests include identifying and implementing best practices in the first-year seminar, the effective use and support of peer educators, and faculty development.

Latino received a Bachelor of Science in business administration from the University of North Carolina at Pembroke; a Master of Education in higher education from North Carolina State University; and a Doctor of Education in higher education from Florida State University.

Formerly the associate director for University 101 Programs at the University of South Carolina, Jennifer is a regularly invited presenter for institutes and conferences sponsored by the National Resource Center for The First-Year Experience and Students in Transition.

LOGGING IN TO THE WEBCAST

After registration, each registrant will receive a confirmation of payment or an invoice, depending on method of payment. Each registrant will also receive an email with appropriate login information and more information regarding the event a few days prior to the start of the event. The day of the conference, you will receive another email with the same information. To participate, you will need a computer with a high-speed Internet connection. You will have the option to receive audio via your computer speakers or telephone.

WHAT IS A SINGLE SITE CONNECTION?

A site connection allows a single connection to the Web conferencing software and teleconference. We encourage you to set the event up in a conference room or classroom from a single computer in order to allow multiple stakeholders from your campus to participate. Remember, as long as only a single computer connects, you can bring as many people as you want to the event. Because there are no travel expenses and only a single registration fee is required, each additional participant lowers the cost per person significantly. Purchasing a site connection and inviting everyone involved in a particular topic is a great way to provide cost-effective professional development. Please note that you will have the option to receive audio via your computer speakers or telephone.

If for any reason a relevant stakeholder cannot co-locate for the session, we encourage you to include that person by purchasing an additional connection at the reduced fee of $195 per session. This will ensure that every member of a team receives the same relevant, timely information in the most efficient way. If an interested party cannot participate at the designated time, or if someone would like to view the presentation again, an archived copy of the event will be available for 60 days. If you have any technical or purchasing questions, please contact us at 720.488.6800.
