ADVANCEMENT EVENTS STRATEGY

November 2 - 3, 2017 Denver, CO

Learn how to strategically increase engagement and giving with your advancement events.

OVERVIEW

Creative events can provide a high return on investment and increase engagement for your alumni and donors. But, poorly executed—lacking strategy or performed solely out of tradition—events can simply be a drain on resources.

Join us to develop a cohesive strategy for your alumni and donor events, including a framework for vetting future events, performing proper follow-up with attendees, and ensuring that one of your largest budget items is working towards your goals. We will cover ideas and best practices for large-scale events such as galas, homecomings, and reunions, as well as smaller ones like salon events and career-oriented alumni programming.

Note: This conference will not cover event planning basics, but is instead focused on higher-level strategy.

LEAVE WITH AN ACTION PLAN

After walking through critical development and execution strategy, you will have working time to tackle one of your own events. You will leave this working session with an action plan for improving this event and have the opportunity to receive feedback from our experts and your peers.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Advancement, alumni relations, and institution-wide professionals who produce or help develop events for alumni relations and/or advancement shops will benefit from this conference.

AGENDA

DAY 1

8:30 - 9:00 a.m.

Conference Registration and Breakfast (included in registration fee)

9:00 - 9:30 a.m.

Conference Opening and Introductions

9:30 - 10:30 a.m.

The Current State of Advancement and Alumni Events

This opening session will take a careful look at the current state of events in advancement and alumni relations. What is working well in the industry? What needs to change? We will examine how this conference will help you evaluate your current events and programming to understand how to adjust course as needed.

10:30 - 10:45 a.m.

Break

10:45 a.m. - 12:15 p.m.

Developing Event Purpose and Strategy

While understanding each event's purpose and developing a strategy to execute that purpose may seem straightforward, your institution likely has events that are hosted annually without taking a step back to understand how these events fit into your shop's overall goals. This session will introduce a framework that you will able to apply to each of your events to ensure they are leading you down a productive path.

12:15 - 1:15 p.m.

Lunch (included in the registration fee)

1:15 - 2:30 p.m.

Event Follow-Up and Metrics

How you follow-up with attendees after events can largely determine how productive an event was. What does this type of intentional follow-up look like? In addition, how do you know if an event was productive and successful? In this session, we will walk you through developing metrics to successfully debrief each event, as well as how to do so annually in a comprehensive way.

2:30 - 4:30 p.m.

Strategizing for Large Donor and Fundraising Events (includes break)

With your toolkit full of ideas for general alumni events and programming, we now turn our attention to larger donor and fundraising events, including galas and campaign events. This session will talk through pre- and post-event work for cultivation and solicitation, and partnerships with gift officers and donor relations officers.

AGENDA

DAY 2

8:30 - 9:00 a.m.

Breakfast (included in the registration fee)

9:00 - 11: 00 a.m. (includes break)

Engaging Alumni Events and Programming

Now that we have a better understanding of how to assess current events and programming, the next few sessions will dive into examples and best practices. This session will include ongoing alumni programming, including alumni career programs, translating campus traditions to off-campus environments, homecoming, reunion, awards, etc.

11:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Developing Your Event Strategy and Action Plan

With a sense of which events you would like to tackle once back on campus, this working session will help you translate the event framework for one of your upcoming events, noting action steps for developing partnerships and transforming lackluster events. You will have the opportunity to work with faculty, present on your plans, and receive feedback from your peers.

11:45 a.m. - 12:15 p.m.

Final Conference Q&A and Evaluation

INSTRUCTORS

Matthew Helmer, Executive Director of CSU Events & Community Engagement, Colorado State University

Matthew is an advancement professional with more than 20 years of experience in event production, fundraising, public relations and constituent engagement. Matthew currently serves as Executive Director of CSU Events and Community Engagement at Colorado State University, where he provides creative and strategic leadership for a talented team of event, communications and donor relations professionals who manage more than 300 engagement opportunities annually. Additionally, he is directly responsible for Presidential events and constituent engagement strategy for the CSU System.

Known for a love of novel ideas, Matthew led an innovative reorganization at CSU in 2010, consolidating responsibility for all alumni, donor and university events under the CSU Events umbrella. This organizational shift opened the door for a candid conversation about the power of purposeful events, leading to a more strategic approach to engagement and significantly contributing to more than five consecutive years of record-breaking fundraising results.

In 2015, Matthew became a founding member of the Donor Relations Guru Group, a consulting collaborative spearheaded by internationally known author, speaker and consultant, Lynne Wester.

A Louisiana native, Matthew is a proud alumnus of the University of Arkansas and remains an avid Razorbacks fan. He currently lives in Colorado with his partner, their two-year-old son, and two fur babies.

Jennifer Richwine, Executive Director of the Washington, D.C. Office, Wake Forest University

Jennifer has more than 19 years of experience in special events and higher education. In 2014 she was named Wake Forest University's first Executive Director of the Washington, D.C. Office. In this capacity she partners with campus departments (Advancement, Alumni Engagement, Office of Personal and Career Development, the Provost, Deans, and academic departments) to develop and enhance programs for the entire alumni, parent and friend constituency in the D.C. metro area, as well as between and among faculty and students on campus, building a bridge from campus to one of the University's key cities. She also leads the development of a study/internship program for undergraduates who wish to study and work in the nation's capital, opening in Fall 2017.

Prior to her current role, she was vice president of university events, where she was responsible for the overall strategy, production and execution of the signature events for the university. Her experience covers a wide range of events, from intimate donor dinners at the president's house, to large-scale events including inaugurations, national presidential debates, campaign kickoffs, film screenings, tapings of NPR's "Wait, Wait Don't Tell Me," and ESPN's Homecoming Show with Rick Reilly, as well as 12 years of commencements with national and international dignitaries. While head of the events team at Wake Forest, Jennifer's interest and focus were on event strategy, success metrics before and after an event, and execution of events without reinventing the wheel. She and her staff regularly partnered with development, stewardship and donor relations, and principal gifts staff to customize events and visits to campus, creating an experience designed to engage constituents in a more meaningful way with the university and its mission. Jennifer's passion for expressions of gratitude in any workplace environment led her to author a book entitled With Gratitude - The Power of a Thank You Note, which was named the number one new release in business etiquette. Jennifer is a Phi Beta Kappa alumna of Wake Forest University with a bachelor's degree in English.
