Learn how you can set achievable goals for revitalizing your student life facilities.

OVERVIEW

Student life facilities—including residence halls, recreation facilities, and student unions—can help your institution build community while integrating student learning and social experiences. This three-day event will combine architectural and institutional perspectives to give you the latest in student life facility:

- Master Planning
- Integrated Programming
- Stakeholder Involvement
- Funding Models
- Usage and Trends

Working time has been incorporated throughout the event to help you apply the concepts you learn. You will leave with a comprehensive workbook with conference materials and resources that you can reference during the event and back on campus.

SITE VISIT: UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS AT AUSTIN

As part of this program, you will have the chance to visit the University of Texas at Austin. On this tour you will be able to visit a number of recreational facilities, tour the Student Activities Center, and participate in a discussion about the residence hall and dining facility currently being built.

BRING YOUR TEAM AND SAVE

Representatives from student affairs, student recreation, residence life, and facilities can all collectively learn how a holistic capital planning effort can ensure that student life considerations are top of mind when building the most impactful facilities possible on campus. When you register two people, a third can attend for 50% off!

AGENDA

DAY 1

8:00 - 8:30 a.m.

Registration and Continental Breakfast (included in registration fee)

8:30 - 8:45 a.m.

Introductions and Opening Remarks

8:45 - 9:30 a.m.

Current Trends in Student Life Facilities

Colleges and universities continue to build state of the art student life facilities to help boost enrollment, stay competitive, and enhance the on-campus experience. This first session will set the foundation for the conference, by discussing key trends in student life facilities and how this can help set the stage for your master planning process. Our expert will outline 2-3 national trends regarding residence halls, student unions, dining, and recreation and wellness facilities.

9:30 - 9:45 a.m.

Break

9:45 - 10:45 a.m.

Comprehensive Visioning Session: Assessing Current Facilities and Envisioning the Future

In this visioning exercise, you and your team will have the opportunity to assess your current facilities and brainstorm how your ideal facilities can best address trends. Through the guidance of our experts on hand, we will guide your visioning session as you address:

- Where you are now in terms of trends in student life, master planning, and facility specific challenges as they apply to your own campus and tie to your strategic vision
- Student behavior trends—how students spend their time on campus
- Increased competitiveness—what prospective students are looking for
- Student retention—what students need to succeed academically
- A desire for campus community—what students need to succeed socially

10:45 - 11:45 a.m.

Keys to Student Life Master Planning

This session will lay out key factors to consider when adding to an existing student facility suite. From pre-project planning to facility proximity, this session will help ensure your planning efforts address key foundational elements, including:

- Addressing national trends in the context of your institution's growth aspirations
- Assessing current facilities in developing project scope
- Integrating existing facilities with current infrastructure
- Determining project placement and facility proximity

11:45 a.m. - 12:30 p.m.

Working Session: Campus Context and Project Goals

This working session will allow your team to discuss the morning's sessions in the context of your institution. Here, you will be able to address master planning and goals specific to your projects. Following will be an opportunity to share and compare thoughts with other attendees.

12:30 - 1:30 p.m.

Lunch (included in registration fee)

DAY 1 (CONTINUED)

1:30 - 2:30 p.m.

Working Title (University Dining: The Future of Dining is Now)

Long gone are the days of bland institutionalized cafeteria style dining, as colleges and universities have recognized the need to create forward thinking and vibrant spaces that promote healthy eating and socialization. Hear from our expert speaker on current campus dining trends and how food needs to fit into the context of the whole campus.

2:30 - 2:45 p.m.

Break

2:45 - 4:00 p.m.

Blending Student Life and Academics in a Reimagining of the Clemson Core Campus

Following a planning decision to demolish and replace three major buildings in the heart of its campus, Clemson University set out to fundamentally re-imagine the entire Core Campus precinct. Professionals from Clemson University and VMDO Architects will demonstrate how 700 new beds of housing, a 10,000 sf Honors College, and a new 1200 seat dining hall creates an intense and dynamic center that blends social, residential and academic experiences.

4:00 - 5:00 p.m.

Networking Reception (included in registration fee)

DAY 2

8:00 - 8:30 a.m.

Continental Breakfast (included in registration fee)

8:30 - 9:30 a.m.

Planning Collaboratively: Integrating Key Stakeholders in Student Life Facility Revitalization

Student life facilities demand the attention of several critical stakeholders to ensure success, including residence life, student union, recreation and wellness, dining, facilities planning, and capital planning. All departments have different perspectives and ideas surrounding campus projects, and this session will provide you keys for entering into shared and productive conversations to move your projects forward.

9:30 - 10:30 a.m.

Working Session: Shared Perspectives on Stakeholder Involvement

You will work with peer groups to map out your campus and community stakeholders. This will also include identifying involvement strategies for each group and a planning exercise.

10:30 - 10:45 a.m.

Break

10:45 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Student Life Facilities Showcase

This session will give you an opportunity to hear from an institution or architect about the design and function of a Student Life facility. This will be a visually rich presentation, to show different types of spaces, furniture, and function.

12:00 - 1:00 p.m.

Lunch (included in registration fee)

1:00 - 3:30 p.m.

Site Visit: University of Texas at Austin

The University of Texas at Austin is the flagship campus of the University of Texas system. The University has a long history of providing a top notch education, but also of engaging students outside of the classroom. During the site visit you will have the opportunity to see a number of recreational facilities, tour the Student Activities Center and hear about the new residence hall and dining facility being built.

3:30 - 4:30 p.m.

Panel Discussion

Following the site visit, this time will be spent discussing key aspects of the planning process and project outcomes with the University of Texas at Austin stakeholders who were most intimately involved in the project's actualization. The UT Austin staff will also share information regarding a new residence hall and dining facility being built on campus.

DAY 3

8:30 - 9:00 a.m.

Continental Breakfast (included in registration fee)

9:00 - 10:00 a.m.

Funding Student Life Facilities

Institutions are faced with limited budgets and competing demands—so how can you develop a master plan that brings new funding options to the table? During this session, our expert will lay out the different types of funding sources available to institutions as they develop a Student Life Facilities master plan.

10:00 - 10:15 a.m.

Break

10:15 - 11:30 a.m.

Keys to Phasing Your Student Life Facility Projects

While a single project plan would be ideal, the reality is that most institutions must phase-in their projects over time. Learn from our expert speaker how your institution can best position itself over time, through phased planning and intentional timelines. Included in this discussion will be:

- Addressing various modes of prioritization: financial, student need, or space limitations
- Benchmarking progress and reassessing capital project plans

11:30 a.m. - 12:00 p.m.

Wrap-Up

INSTRUCTORS

Derek Jackson, Assistant Vice President Student Affairs and Director of Housing and Dining Services, Kansas State University

Derek has more than 26 years of experience primarily in housing and dining services at Kansas State University as well as the University of Georgia. Recently promoted to the Assistant VP for Student Life with responsibility for the Health Center, Counseling Center, Child Care Center and Recreation Center. Has participated in more than $200 Million in new construction and $40 Million in renovations in the past 10 years. Served on the leadership team that lead the university master plan and north corridor university/city master plans. Actively involved in ACUHO-I having taught primarily facilities management topics at the CHO Institute, National Housing Training Institute, South African Housing Training Institute, and recently elected to the ACUHO-I Board as the Facilities and Physical Environment Director.

Jim Smart, Executive Director, Housing and Residence Life, University of Miami

Jim has worked in student affairs and student housing for nearly forty years. For the last twenty-six years, he has been at the University of Miami serving as an assistant and associate director in housing, as well as director of the Toppel Career Center, prior to returning to his “roots” in housing in 2009. For the last two years Jim has led a housing facilities strategic planning process in collaboration with a team of outside consultants and a collaborative team from within the university. Their efforts have recently moved into the design and permitting for the first phase of a three-phase, $400 million housing renewal program.

OTHERS	VS	ACADEMIC IMPRESSIONS
Typically large annual event		Intimate, workshop-style event with personalized attention
Many concurrent sessions; forcing choice		One focused learning track
Uneven sessions and less outcome-focused, driven by an open call for proposals		Needs-driven and meticulously planned with practical outcomes <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Action plans and next steps to use upon returning to campus Carefully-vetted expert instructors that are also practitioners in the field
Lecture-based		Learner-centric and designed for interaction and collaboration
Large networking events with vendors		Small-scale opportunity to truly connect with colleagues in the same position at other institutions
Some slide presentations posted online after the event		200+ page workbooks with references, worksheets, articles, templates, exercises, and planning documents

AI Conference Experiences

Academic Impressions provides valuable exploration of timely and pragmatic challenges to higher education institutions. The combination of impassioned subject matter experts as presenters and means of engaging conference attendees was potent.

- C. Tennent, Associate VP of Facilities Management, University of Saskatchewan

This conference was the complete package: relevant topics, philosophical and practical applications, fantastic speakers, fantastic location. One of the BEST conferences I've ever attended. It is what a conference should be! Full of collaboration, networking and solutions.

- M. Lowe, Associate Professor and General Reference Librarian University of Louisiana at Monroe
