

ONLINE MEMBERSHIP QUICK FACTS

What You Get

- Access to all online learning resources – membership covers both live and recorded webcasts
- Best practices and emerging innovations designed specifically for faculty and staff in higher ed
- Over 500 higher ed experts contributing case studies, examples, sample plans/templates, tools
- Short lessons and quizzes targeting critical areas of compliance
- Dozens of new resources added each month
- $250 discount on online bootcamp and in-person conference registrations
- Access to all 2022 virtual conferences (limited space available for all-inclusive members)
- Trainings and resources across campus: academic leadership, leadership, women in leadership, faculty success, institutional & academic planning, student success, enrollment management & marketing, advancement, diversity, equity & inclusion, Title IX compliance

What are the Benefits?

- Improved employee engagement and retention
- Infuse new thinking with proven practices from outside your institution
- Accelerate change through comprehensive leadership development
- Plug Academic Impressions resources directly into existing training programs or leadership academies for faculty, staff, and administrators
- Monitor training activity and usage through reporting

What's Different

- All of our resources are designed exclusively for higher education professionals, and the unique operating context of higher ed
- Content across both leadership/personal development and job-specific needs
- Resources that support different learning styles and modes
- Highest quality trainings (90%+ satisfaction rate for online resources)